Anteroposterior radiograph of the elbow joint

Ke-Hua Pan consultant radiologist¹, Ming-Hua Zheng consultant hepatologist²

¹Department of Radiology, First Affiliated Hospital of Wenzhou Medical University, Wenzhou, Zhejiang, China; ²Department of Infection and Liver Diseases, First Affiliated Hospital of Wenzhou Medical University

Identify the structures labelled A, B, C, D, E, F, G, and H in this anteroposterior radiograph of the elbow joint.

Answers
A: Lateral epicondyle of the humerus
B: Trochlea of the humerus
C: Olecranon fossa
D: Medial epicondyle of the humerus
E: Head of the radius
F: Neck of the radius
G: Radial tuberosity
H: Coronoid process

Cite this as: BMJ 2015;350:h2243
© BMJ Publishing Group Ltd 2015

Correspondence to: M-H Zheng blueman1320@163.com

For personal use only: See rights and reprints http://www.bmj.com/permissions
Subscribe: http://www.bmj.com/subscribe